

Centennial Book Pre-Order

"Strike Up the Band! Celebrating 100 Years of Excellence in Sound, Sight, and Community Support; The High School Band Story in Kingsport, 1926-2026"

The Centennial committee is incredibly excited to announce that the book "Strike Up the Band! Celebrating 100 Years of Excellence in Sound, Sight, and Community Support" will be available before the holiday season this year! This book tells the historical journey of the Dobyns-Bennett High School Band and would make a great gift for any member, alumni, band parent (former or current), and community member.

Pre-order your copy today by making a direct donation of $35, and we will hold a reserved book for you the moment it is published. Your support not only helps with final production and bringing this project to life, but also with additional efforts of the band such as helping ensure that ALL students are able to go to the Macy's Day Parade. Pre-order deadline November 5th (books will still be available for purchase after this deadline until all copies are sold out).
